LESSONS FOR LIFE

A CAMPSHIP STORY FROM 2017

When a teen began to have trouble with her school, family, and the authorities, she decided it was time to make better friends. After an especially difficult incident the student entered her school nurse's office and said she wanted to make a change. The nurse could feel her sincerity.

At the very last moment, Camp was able to accept her for a 2-week session. Donations made this possible.

Without knowing any circumstances, her counselors noted that she did everything possible to stay out of trouble. In fact, they said when trouble occurred she went in the other direction.

Camp is not only a place of new friendships, it is a place of new beginnings. A place where adolescents can remake themselves without judgment.

A place where they can grow their future.
