Ninety-One Years of Camping Excellence 1911-2002

We build strong kids, strong families, strong communities.

December 2001

What a great summer we had here in our corner of the world in New Hampshire. Tons of returning staff, and a sprinkling of new programs, a bumper crop of returning staff, and a sprinkling of new programs.

past, a bumper crop of returning staff, and a sprinkling of new programs. As you know, the return of the Coniston programs was a surprise to everyone every year.

This year there were surprises in store for us and the thousands of campers from last year. I love to think of the thousands of kids who have come before us and the staff is already in place for our next great summer.

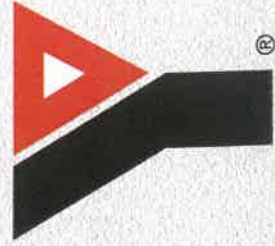

What do we have in store for next year? The camp is already full and most of the campers from last year are returning! The CITs and LIITs are chosen and a few spots left in starting to come together already. As difficult as it is to believe, Adventure Camp will be full soon. As difficult as it is to believe, Adventure Camp will be full soon.

As difficult as it is to believe, Adventure Camp will be full soon. As difficult as it is to believe, Adventure Camp will be full soon. As difficult as it is to believe, Adventure Camp will be full soon.

I can't wait to see you here.

Happy New Year!

In Loving Memory of John Birkland

July 26, 1932 — November 2, 2001

Those we love remain with us

John served as Coniston's Director of Maintenance through 1997.

For love itself lives on,

His love of the Coniston community was legendary. John's gentle

And cherished memories never fade

demeanor made it easy for the numerous young staff to connect

Because a loved one is gone with and learn from him. He touched many lives, and in his

These we love can never be memory Camp Coniston started a fund to develop a new

More than a thought apart, workshop program for seniors. In "John Birkland's Shop" senior

For as long as there is memory

campers will be able to learn the skills and patience that John

They'll live on in the heart, displayed daily. Because of him, Coniston is a better place, a

- Kristone

place we can all take pride in.
