Dear Campers, Staff and Parents,

I'm finally a five-year camper at Coniston. Now, I am the proud recipient of a five-year triangle.

To those of you not as familiar with camp, this might not seem like a big deal, but for those of us who are part of the summer community, we all take special pride in being recognized as a committed member of our extended camp family on the last night of our summer session.

When people ask me about being at camp for five years, I always describe activities. I talk about those crazy summer days filled with soccer, swimming, horses, and archery— evenings of ice cream socials, time with our cabins, and campfires. If they are still listening, I go on and on about the CIT program—how in just 4 weeks a bunch of 16-year-olds can grow together and go home stronger and wiser and ready to be leaders in their own worlds back home.

I tell them that specific activities at camp may change- one year we could have Darth Vader running through camp for Star Wars Day and the next year we could all be wearing the colors of our adopted nations for the Olympics, but the thing that never changes is the friendships we all develop as we run through camp in the middle of whatever the activity of the moment is.

After five years at Coniston, I know that camp friends are like no others. We write over the internet, we get together during the year and we honk at each other when we recognize someone on the road. How many times have you seen someone wearing a Coniston sweatshirt or a Coniston sticker on their car, and you just had to stop and talk to them? Even if you've never met them before, you know there is a connection.

Long after we leave camp each summer, we still have a piece of Coniston in our heart. My five-year triangle reminds me of the laughter and faces of all my friends. Thank you all for being part of these memories and making Coniston the most special camp on earth.

The part of our friends that I like best, almost like my five-year triangle is we take them with us.

See you next summer (or maybe sooner).

When I think of vespers I think of a time when the whole girls camp can get together, and just listen to what the other cabins have to think of. I am very glad that we have vespers, to share our favorite poems or stories.

- 3-year Camper: Shannon Partridge

It was my FAVORITE time of day for the 14 summers that I was there. Quiet, calm, peaceful... sitting on the benches facing the lake and thinking how lucky I was to be at camp. Nothing was better.

- Alumni: Meghan Salvas

To me, Vespers is Miss Cleanie. Oh Miss Cleanie. You can't forget Miss Cleanie. She rocks. Especially when she was making herself a peanut butter and jelly sandwich on a rainy day and got peanut butter stuck to her wings so she couldn't check the cabins. THAT is true Coniston.

- 5-Year Camper

Vespers

5:15 - 5:30

Vespers is held just before dinner Monday through Saturday. It is meant to personally inspire and if you were a fly on the bench for those short 15 minutes of the day, you'd have an understanding about what our camp community is all about. Girls camp and boys camp gather as a whole, in their own campfire areas, to reflect on the day, think about their personal experiences, and listen to the touching stories of others. It is caring and respectful; it is insightful and rewarding; it is emotional and spiritual; it is giving and it is truly Coniston.

- Assistant Director: JD

When I think about vespers I think of how much I enjoy it. I always thought it was so cool how every night all of boys camp could go to a certain place and all be together and listen to that one person who was going to inspire us that day. After we sit there looking out at the lake, thinking about what was just said. It's a good time to calm down a little and just think.

- CIT: Alan Macedonio

Number... What number? I waited many years to find out what the number is... once you get on staff it's a huge privilege to know how the number is picked in boys camp and why; until then... as a camper I was always trying to figure it out.... "43"

- Division Leader: Zach Zimmerman

When I think of vespers I think of how everybody gets along at Coniston and lives their lives day by day. How all of girls camp is there and spends 15 minutes together, and even though its only fifteen minutes, it's the best fifteen minutes of my life. During my 5 years at Coniston and 8 sessions, 1440 minutes of my life have been at vespers. That's 24 hours: one whole day. And it's been the best day of my life.

- Conistonian: Laura Dellicker

Everyone looks forward to it. In boys camp, vespers is run by a single staff member and it switches every day. It's like a right of passage when a staff member runs his first vespers.

- Boys Camp Director: Mike Armitage

To me vespers is that time of day where you can look around the campfire ring and share a moment with all those people who are the reason you come back every summer.

- Cabin Counselor: Cat Cook
