December 2007

Imagine our land... our lake... our camp in 4,000 years. What will people find?

In the year 6008 AD camp may be one of the few undeveloped spaces left in the United States. That's because so many love this place, we joined together to keep it wild. Even that far in the future, as loons break the silence of the valley, archaeologists may wonder what kind of people swam in these waters and walked on these trails? Who thought so much of this land to preserve its natural beauty?

Four thousand years from now archaeologists may only find the remains of camp buildings... will they think that the thick beds of charcoal at the boys and girls vespers rings are the same as the ceremonial fires we find from Indians who lived in the Americas long before Europeans came?

Perhaps they will find the ruins of the Dining Hall—hundreds of little stools, giant kettles, a griddle the size of a small car, and perhaps the Hobart. Maybe our docks will be at the bottom of the lake.... They may excavate the Old Lodge only to find the orange linoleum still on the floor. Some designer of the time may be overheard saying "why would someone ever put this wooden floor over that?"

There is the outside chance that they could stumble into a massive pile of lost and found. Perhaps this area was filled with a species of primate with only one leg... what other possible explanation could there be behind the fact that more than 4000 socks with no match were found in one location?

But maybe...just maybe, the archaeologists will know about camps. Perhaps they will even find a record of how great Coniston is.

But the buildings and records will never tell the whole story. Four thousand years from now they will never truly understand what made Coniston special in the hearts of so many.

They will not know the excitement of coming back to camp and seeing your friends. They will not experience the thrill of finding out who is in your cabin from the summer before.

They will never experience the joy of dancing in the Dining Hall with almost five hundred people. Never can they understand the hugs and the tears of us all on the last night. They will never see the fireworks reflected in the eyes of our friends.

This is because camp is more than a place. There is a little piece with everyone who has ever loved it. Camp is in our memories and in our hearts. It is the friendships and the great times that we all have.

Camp is you and me. That is why we hate to leave. And it is also what will bring us all back.

See you next summer,

John Tilley

New Sunday Schedule

Morning Chapel

July 1, 2007 – our very first chapel in our new site overlooking cranberry pond! Clearing and site construction began with the 2004 CIT groups with many helping hands in the following years. It was a beautiful sunny day for inaugural chapel with our new time, and new location. Thank you to everyone who contributed!

SUNDAY SCHEDULE
Time	Activity
7:50 am	Catholic Church (optional – meet at flagpole 7:45)
9:00	Breakfast Snack (setters should arrive to set at 8:45 and bring back snack to cabin after table is set)
9:30#	Reveille
10:00*	Chapel Departure
10:30	Chapel
11:15	Brunch
12:15	Camp Improvement Clean Up & Bunk Switches in cabin (top/bottom)
1:15*	Flag Raising
1:30	Sunday Program
3:15	Camper Snack (in Dining Hall)
3:30	Sunday Select
4:30*	Cabin Time
4:50*	Vespers (1st Year Conistonian Ceremony)
5:15	Cook Out!
6:15	Free Time
6:45*	Flag Lowering
7:00 – 8:45	Ice Cream Social/Dance (sponsored by CIT's)
9:00pm* #	Taps

Session 2's theme was Peace. We hesitantly attempted to conduct chapel in the new chapel site, but as all the campers were walking over, the skies opened up and it DOWNPOURED! The girls were close enough to detour directly into the Pavilion; however the boys were walking down by the rifle range, already on their way! They picked up their pace and jogged onto Coniston Rd and around past the front gate, down to the Pavilion – soaking wet!

Session 3 proved to be beautiful and sunny again so we were back at the new site. Friendship was the theme, and it was a hot one! The morning sun shown down into the seating area and looking up from the lower triangle platform, the speakers could see friendships of all types, between all ages, genders and cultural backgrounds.

Session 4, Mother Nature was on our side... maybe because the theme was Nature? It was a great way to hold our final chapel of the summer. Many staff and campers participated and because of the contributions of Morgan and her Coniston Singers, and of many first-time chapel speakers, it was an amazing end to the summer!

New Mural

In 1938, M. Herr painted the loved mural around the stage in the lodge with Peter Pan, Alice in Wonderland and other fairy tales, this creation is memorable to all Conistonians through the years. Summer 2007, artist and neighbor, Chip Evans, painted a new mural for Coniston! A beautiful landscape of our shoreline that transitions through all four seasons is what we asked for and Chip delivered. The campers were able to be involved as Chip displayed his work on check-in days then throughout the summer he painted in the dining hall where the mural will be hung for Summer 2008.

Campers helped paint the people in the main camp and helped Chip whenever the opportunity presented itself! The landscape starts with early Spring by the girls' campfire ring, moves into Summer in main camp. The autumn color is best at the boat-house and as you follow the shore to boys' waterfront it becomes a snowy Winter. There are two cross country skiers on the lake which Chip painted in as John and JD. We hope today's campers will be able to talk to their own children on future check-in days about how they saw this mural's creation!

We have 116 campers who have been coming to camp since 2003. They get a special 5-year Coniston Triangle during our closing candlelight ceremony, and each name will be engraved on a paddle and hung in the dining hall so someday their children can look back on the 5-year Conistonians from 2007!

4TH SESSION

Junior Division Leaders: Aislinn Fenton & Zach Friedman. This year we continued the newer tradition of "sneak attacks" onto the other cabins in the dining hall, we had crazy dress up dinners, loved our division cheers, and we really had fun with our "big brothers & big sisters." So many camp memories... and so many more in the years to come! Junior campers have completed 2nd, 3rd, 4th grade.

JUNIORS!... HEY WHAT??? ... remember to WIGGLE IT... JUST A LITTLE BIT... ONE MORE TIME...

4TH SESSION

This years Middler Division Leaders were Jacque Zimmerman & Zach Rowe. Middler campers have completed 5th or 6th grade. We had cool division nights... remember the "nature hike around the lake" which was really a SURPRISE PARTY for everyone! We also loved the "Good 'ol American Night" which was like a country fair out on the A-Field with tug o' war, pie eating, hay toss, country music and other fun games! Isn't it interesting that the two Middler Division Leaders have webbed toes? We love ya MIDDLEAZH!

2007 Senior Division Campers

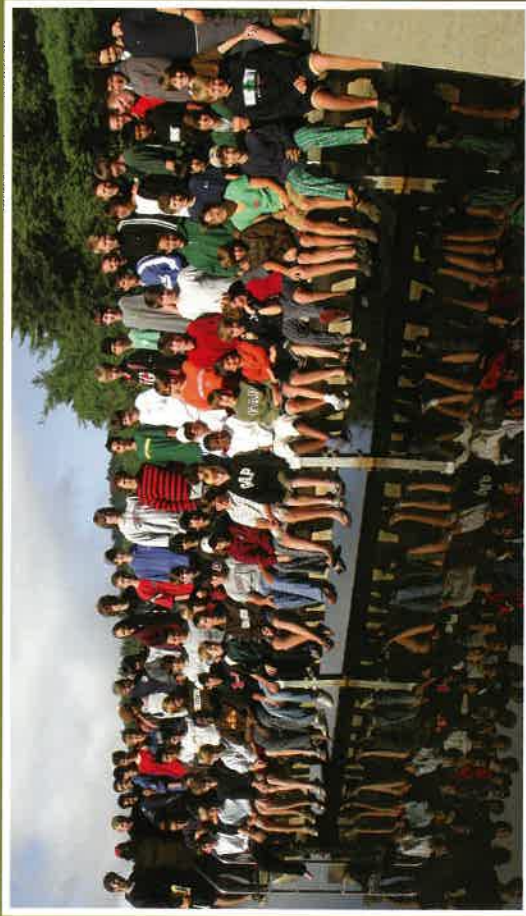

1ST SESSION

2ND SESSION

3RD SESSION

4TH SESSION

Senior Division Leaders: Joey Whelan, Alex Simon & Morgan Miliardo. Seniors have completed 7th, 8th, 9th, 10th grade. Sweet memories include amazing pop-star enthusiasm for Gwen Stefani and Khiana! Alex's Bah Mitzvah evening... 80's style! Senior Olympics where everyone got to bargain for ridiculous prizes including a blue kiddie pool! Senior Girls had a new cheer called THUNDERATION. Senior camp is the largest division and they are the role models for the younger campers. They have great enthusiasm, and a deep love for Coniston... I mean when boys cry in the dining hall because it's check-out.... Who doesn't love that?!
