summer /n. a period of hot, usually sunny weather.

Finally we had a real summer...for the first time in three years. This meant that swimming and any activity around the lake became favorites. With old and new friends gathered in the warm sun the summer seemed to pass too quickly.

Every bed in camp was filled and a great staff treated hundreds of campers to fun-filled sessions. But it is the spirit of friendship at Coniston that brings us back summer after summer. John McNair, Boy's Camp Director, became the newest in a line of 15 year camper-staff members. There were 23 ten-year staff members and an amazing 136 five-year campers and staff. Of course, Nurse Sue Strebel came back for another summer making 2010 her 22nd in a row.

It is appropriate to think of the time people have spent here as we approach our 100th Anniversary on February 8, 2011. The people celebrating 5, 10 or 15 summers comprise a very short list compared to the thousands of lives who have been changed for the better during our proud history.

Why do we all love it so? Coniston is a world where people sit down and eat three meals together every day, serving their food from platters and talking with one another throughout the meal. It is a world where people take turns setting the table for dinner and take the dishes back to the kitchen when the meal is finished, and look forward to dancing with their friends while doing it. We are a world where boys don't play video games every night, and no one watches TV or sits in front of computers. Instead, campers lie on their beds and read comic books and graphic novels, sometimes even grown-up novels. In this world I see girls walking together and holding hands as they walk back to their cabins. Right out in the open...everyday.

As amazing as these phenomena are, they aren't the most fantastic things to be seen at camp. Each day I see a place where nineteen and twenty-year-old young men and women spend hours of time swimming, sailing and kayaking with eleven year-olds, and all enjoy it equally. When activities are over, campers hang out with these young adults and ask them questions. They walk to dinner together, sometimes with the smaller campers hugging and hanging on the older campers, who don't tease them or act annoyed. Even more amazing, at the end of each afternoon, before dinner the camps gather as the campers, younger staff and older staff (me included) sit and listen to them tell stories about their lives. The young ones aren't sarcastic or dismissive the way that television sitcoms suggest they are supposed to be. They seem eager to learn, day after day.

The traditions of camp are many. Bells to announce the next period, campfires, dancing in the dining hall and running in the lake after a CIT trip occur every summer and are remembered by all. But the most important traditions are those of togetherness, friendship and respect that you can only see if you are here every day.

So it is not always hot...or sunny in New Hampshire in the summer. So how about an additional definition?

summer /n. a time when people gather to share, learn, and enjoy each other in a way that touches the heart and changes the lives of those who were there.

2010 Coniston Annual

“Really great people make you feel that you, too, can become great.” — Mark Twain

Our Past... Your Future

In 1964, when YMCA Camp Soangetaha moved from Rand Pond in Goshen, NH to its present location on Lake Coniston, "we thought we had found the most beautiful place on earth." In 1969, Camp's name officially changed to Coniston, and a century of tradition and excellence were continued to this day.

Coniston now enters its Centennial Celebration... 100 years of creating experience where campers grow older and stronger, and learn lessons they carry though out their lives. Camp is so much more than that. At Camp young adults who are role models teach children. Campers learn from others their own age or even younger. Due to the community formed during a summer session campers gain experiences that their peers at home may not have. These positive experiences give children the confidence to excel in other parts of their life.

We are expecting over 1000 alumni, friends and guests over the course of the celebration weekend. Registration and lodging information will be on our website by February 2011. www.coniston.org

2010 Senior Campers

DIVISION LEADERS: HANNAH COLEMAN & AIDAN HEARFIELD
SENIORS: COMPLETED 8TH, 9TH, 10TH GRADE

It's never a dull moment for seniors! On check in day we found out that boys camp had 3 new cabins and now go up to B-13! We get to sign up for special classes like Photography, Skeet & Woodshop! Our Division Leaders programmed fun and social nights for us like the Titanic Dance, Iron Chef Night, Coniston Improv, Viking Ball, Sports Dance, and Mystery Night! Some of us adopted a little sibling from Junior Division and really made a difference in a young campers life. Most of us have always loved overnights but now doing a senior solo and then group talks – it helps us reflect on what we value most and what is important to us. We have more Division Leaders than anyone else and we have the MOST FUN!

2010 Division

Middlers Campers

DIVISION LEADERS: KATIE HENOCH & EMILY KERRIGAN & DYLAN LUSTIG
MIDDLERS: COMPLETED 5TH, 6TH, 7TH GRADE

We're the largest division and we love it! Over the course of the summer we have over 670 Middlers! We're the ones who do flag raising & lowering. Middler cabin G-4 always gets to ring the camp bell... we have lots of cool responsibilities because Camp knows we can handle it! Our Division Leaders created cool Evening Programs for us like Superhero & Country Capture the Flag, Candyland-LIVE, Where in the World is Carmen San Diego, Recess, and Camp Coniston Retirement Night! We have more Division Leaders then the other sessions and we have the MOST FUN!

2010 Junior Division Campers

DIVISION LEADERS: SARA SPIELMAN & CARTER BASCOM • JUNIORS: COMPLETED 2ND, 3RD, 4TH GRADE

We're young but we're enthusiastic! Boys camp had new cabins for us right next to the college. The youngest cabin is B-9 then next in line is B-8! It's fun to know that over the whole summer we had 42 Second Graders, 93 Third Graders and 144 Fourth Graders! Division Nights are awesome because it's just US! We did cool programs like Winter Holiday in July, The Game of Coniston (Life), Battle of the Cereals, Random Object Night, and Beach Luau! We have the potential to get the most Coniston Triangles because we started camp as Juniors... can't wait for our 5th Year Triangle already!

2010 1-Week Campers

BOYS

MONDAY, AUGUST 23 – SATURDAY, AUGUST 28 • 1-WEEK CAMPERS: COMPLETED 2ND – 7TH GRADE

This was our 2nd year of 1-week camp and we loved it! The other sessions may be two weeks but we are Coniston Intensified! There were 109 of us and we were LOUD & PROUD! Our evening programs were the best of the best... Pirate Night, Avatar, National Treasure, Coniston Olympics and Closing Campfire/Candlelight. Dancing in the dining hall, swimming, sailing, hiking and building campfires... it's the best way to end the summer before school starts! We made lots of new friends and grew so close to our counselors, we can't wait to return next summer!
