HARD AT PLAY

To All Our Coniston Friends:

What can we say that hasn't already been said in the smiling faces and warm compliments of campers and parents who shared Coniston 1971? This beautiful place is many things to many people. It is moonlight on the water and sun on the field. It is waterskiis and horses, ice cream buffets and dramatic shows. It is hikes to Georges Mills and cookouts on boys' beach. It is soccer with Max and sailing with Mary. It is new friends and old friends, overnights and scary movies. It is basket weaving and tie dying. It is Circus Day, Long Tom Day, Miss YMCA and fireworks. It is refreshing swims and quiet conversations. It is happy, glowing faces and tearful farewells. It is roast beef and gay singing in the dining hall. It is camp!

So, for a truly great summer, sincere thanks to the outstanding staff and the dedicated people who gave so much of themselves that we could enjoy Camp Coniston and have so many experiences in such a short time.

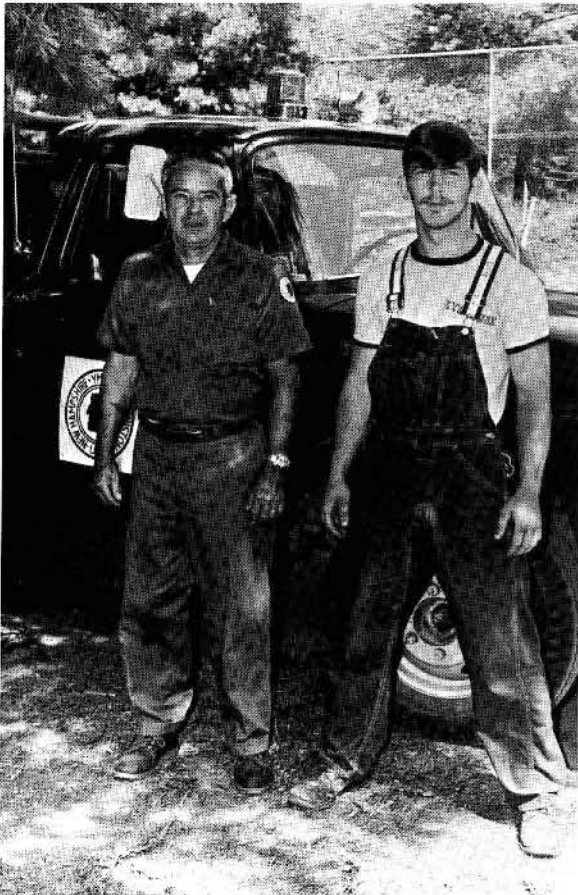

We look forward to seeing you and your friends in another summer and to share with you this place of serene beauty and wide-ranging activities.

OUR INTERNATIONAL COUNSELORS

OUR INTERNATIONAL COUNSELORS

Once again, Coniston was very fortunate in having two outstanding young people from across the seas as counselors. Our girl from Essex, England was Mary Pye, and Max Becker was our fine gentleman from Luzern, Switzerland.

Mary enjoyed teaching sailing and eating peanut butter. Her smiling, exuberant enthusiasm gave everyone a cheery feeling; and, of course, her lovely English accent made every sentence an adventure!

Max was our soccer coach and campcraft instructor. He'll long remember those many hikes to Sugar Hill as well as those wild soccer games on the field! Ice cream seemed to be his favorite food. His English, also, was quite outstanding; and his interest in people and places was most sincere.

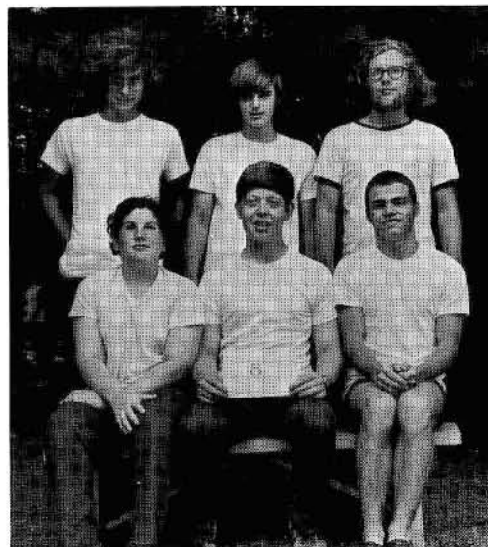

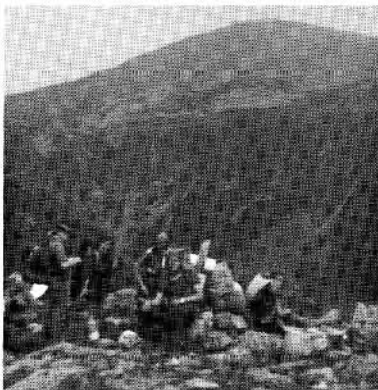

The campers and staff appreciated the dedication Mary and Max gave to their jobs and above all, their pleasant, warm personalities. These were two very fine people who helped us in our efforts for international understanding. May God richly bless them in their future careers.
